NEW CTE "GET REAL" VIDEO CONTEST LAUNCHES: The Workforce Board's video project, which encourages middle and high school students from throughout the state to create their own videos to promote CTE (Career and Technical Education), now features a cool contest! The first three students who submit videos to the CTE "Get Real" Video Challenge that meet contest guidelines can win a $25 gift card, or up to $75 per team. Deadline is the end of the school year, so get out your video camera- or cell phone or tablet-right away! All completed videos will be featured on CareerBridge.wa.gov so fame is guaranteed! More details: <http://www.wtb.wa.gov/CTEvideoproject.asp>. Check out the flyer: <https://bit.ly/2l8ibOx>

Wash. school holds Skilled Trades Day event

Students at a Washington state high school met recently with potential employers during a Skilled Trades Day event. The event, now in its second year, drew 31 companies -- up from nine in the first year.

Scholarships for Students Pursuing CTE: ACTE encourages your students to apply for the Horatio Alger National Career and Technical Scholarship Program, offering 1,020 scholarships of up to $2,500 each to students who wish to pursue a CTE certificate or degree at an accredited nonprofit postsecondary institution in the U.S. ACTE is proud to support this initiative and we encourage your students to apply by the June 15 deadline.

Register to Apply for Harbor Freight Tools for Schools Prize for Teaching Excellence: Harbor Freight Tools for Schools announced this week it will award more than $1 million in cash prizes to 18 outstanding public high school trades teachers and programs, doubling the amount awarded for last year's Harbor Freight Tools for Schools Prize for Teaching Excellence. To register, visit www.HarborFreightTeachingPrize.com. Applications open on May 16 and are due July 6.
