1 Washington ACTE Executive Board Membership – Has the candidate served as a member of the Washington ACTE Executive Board within the past five years?

I have served as the Program Development Chairperson for WA ACTE FACSE for the past 10 years. In this role, my primary responsibility involves collaborating with the President-Elect of WA ACTE FACSE to plan the annual conference. My past responsibilities include attending planning meetings, both on Zoom and in person, contacting vendors and speakers, writing thank-you notes to speakers, and setting up all audiovisual (AV) needs for the speakers during the conference week.

Additionally, I work with WA-ACTE FACSE Presidents to organize the WA-ACTE Summer Conference. This entails attending all Zoom meetings to help prepare the content for the conference. I have also attended WA-ACTE Executive Board meetings as necessary, either as the WA-FACSE Program Development Lead or in place of the FACSE Presidents when they were unavailable.

For the past five years, I have organized and presented a workshop titled "By Teacher for Teacher" at both the Summer Conference and the FCS Annual Conference, as well as other workshops on personal finance and culinary topics. Prior to my role as Program Development Lead Chairperson, I served as the Awards Co-Chair for four years and collaborated with the WA-ACTE Fame Team.
