Engage CTE students in a video contest
ACTE, host of CTE Month®, and NASA HUNCH are excited to announce the 2022-23 student video challenge. The contest engages students to showcase CTE and project-based learning programs in high-demand career fields on Earth and in space. This year's theme is “What is the Purpose of NASA?” Students are asked to feature CTE pathways, courses and careers of the future to fuel and cultivate NASA's future missions. Submit a two-minute video by April 1.

Ariz. State U., Yakima team up on dual enrollment
The Yakima, Wash., School District is partnering with Arizona State University on a dual-enrollment program that enables high-school students to earn an associate degree beginning their freshman year. The program is designed to increase the number of students earning a college degree and attracting a more diverse student body.
